for maximum rigidity and accuracy of alignment, and is sealed by the use of a specially developed gasket technology. Please try again later. Penwriter 5.0 out of 5 stars I used to use Sony DiamondClean toothbrushes but despite spending lots of money on those they quickly died on me. I decided to opt for an oralb toothbrush since they seemed more solid. I didnt want a toothbrush with tons of weird features that are totally unnecessary like the oral b genius toothbrushes. I wanted something that would do the job, had a bit of the fancy features, and that lasted. It also reminds you to floss and use mouthwash everyday, which is nice since I rarely did those things before. My partner and I used to be a bit bad at regularly brushing twice a day. Wed do it once a day everyday but often wed be too tired in the evenings.

The app has a calendar in it that tracks your brushing days. We have been 100% ever since. It also has a small timer which lets you visualize when you need to change the row of teeth you are brushing. 2 minutes used to go by really slowly but nowadays it goes by quite fast. The app is a bit silly and hard to set up at first specially with 2 toothbrushes, it accidentally synced to my partners toothbrush at first. Once it is set up though, youre golden. The toothbrush has an internal memory so that even if you dont brush with the app on, the next time you turn on the app, it will sync all your previous sessions. The app also has little badges of honour ie.Gimmicky but fun. Also the toothbrush comes with 3 heads and a carry case. Very useful when travelling. The only downside to this toothbrush is that it sounds like a chainsaw. I was used to Sonys quiet vibrating toothbrushes. These do not sound like that. They are loud.I get around about 6 days of brushing before having to charge again. This is with an average of 3 minutes brushing time each clean. A few times i have been caught out with the red low charge light and with that, reduced brushing power, but i have managed to finish cleaning my teeth. So to me, the 2 weeks on a full charge is an overestimation. To charge the toothbrush you just place it no the charge dock and it takes many hours to fully charge. I have had the red low charge light at night, i set it to charge, and when i wake up after 7 hours sleep it is still charging. Usually showing the toothbrush is almost 100% full with the 3rd light flashing. The actual brushing of my teeth is excellent, my teeth do feel a lot cleaner after brushing with this. I have noticed a slight improvment with my teeth being whiter. The app android for the phone works quite well, it gives you a good indication of how long to keep brusing one side before moving on to the next.

It keeps a good track of your brushing over many months and gives you little badges for certain accomplishments. It seems to be working ok now, so maybe they fixed it wth an update. The bluetooth sync works well if you dont want to take your phone into the bathroom as the toothbrush keeps a memory of many sessions that you can sync at a later time. I only use 2 settings on the toothbrush, Normal for cleaning my teeth for 2 minutes.The pulsing ones etc, i dont bother with. I use the crosshead brush and this does a great job of cleaning the teeth and keeping my mouth feeling clean and fresh. Overall it was a good purchase. I only wish the battery lasted slightly close to the 2 weeks they claimed. I understand the 2 weeks is probably due to a 2 minute brush twice a day for 14 days. But even that doesnt add up with the times i have used. I took 2 stars off because of this as the usage time is a large factor, and with me having less than half the time reported, this will only degrade more as time moves on.Id tried one before and was not impressed it ran out of charge too quickly, didnt seem to do the job any better than manual brushing and the replacement heads were expensive. Time has moved on a lot since I had that old electric toothbrush and this one really does keep its charge for nearly 2 weeks and feels like it is doing a good job. It is expensive and there are features on there I dont use like the bluetooth bit but over all I am impressed with its performance. I have bought some cheaper heads from elsewhere and am yet to try them but other people reported that they worked well, so I think maybe Ive got the best of both worlds here.All information about the products on our website is provided for information purposes only.
