An example of anger comic usually expresses anger or some other simple emotions or worldly activities These comics spread a lot in the same way that internet memes do, and several memes originated in this medium. They were characterized by Ars SAY Technica as an "accepted and standardized online communication form". The popularity of Rage comics was attributed to their use as vehicles for humor shared experiences. The range of standardized and easily identifiable expressions and faces allowed uses such as teaching English as a foreign language. . Rage comics are usually miscreated and drawn comics, often created with MS Paint (Microsoft Paint). However, despite being mistreated, they evolved into an extraordinary meme. Rage's comics were at their peak in late 2000 and early 2010. But there may also be more modern anger comics, such as Cover Yourself in Oil. History The first comic book was published on the 4chan /b/random tab in 2008. It was a simple 4-panel strip showing the author's anger on getting "splashback" while in the bathroom, with the final panel with a zoomed face, known as Rage Guy, screaming!It was quickly stored and modified, with other users who create new scenarios and characters. [5] Although used on numerous websites such as reddit, cheezburger, ess.mx and 9gag, the source of the rage comics was attributed largely to 4chan at half of 2007. A very remarkable site is ragestache, the More popular than media spartz sites, which is dedicated exclusively to rabies comics and has over 1,900 pages, starting from January 2014. 2014. A typical comic comedian Ira anger have been made where the majority of most memes origin, 4chan Council /B/À the rage comics faces ranging from the infamous "FFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUU-" Face, also called Guy anger, just forever, face trolls, and many others.
