Read moreThe 2018 U.S. Open Tennis Championship will be from August 27 - September 9, 2018. The U.S. Open is America's biggest tennis event and one of the most exciting tennis tournaments worldwide. It's also the last grand slam event of the season for the best players in the world. This event is prime for client and employee entertainment. Luxury suites can be rented on a session-by-session basis in Arthur Ashe Stadium. Arthur Ashe Stadium is part of the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park. There is a total of 24 sessions over the course of the tournament, with the first 20 sessions of the U.S. Open featuring both a day and a night session. For these sessions, you can rent a private suite for just one session if you would like. The following four sessions will be over the course of four days featuring the men's and women's semifinal and final matches. Spectators can expect to see the world's greatest tennis players on display at the 2018 U.S. Open Tennis Championship. In 2017, Sloane Stephens won her first Grand Slam title by defeating Madison Keys in the final round. Sloane Stephens truly pulled off an upset for the ages, as she was ranked just 83rd entering the U.S. Open. For the men's tournament, Rafael Nadal beat Kevin Anderson, taking home his 16th career Grand Slam title. With an Arthur Ashe Stadium suite, guests will get a VIP experience featuring first class amenities such as HDTVS, in-suite catering options, upscale furnishing, premium seating both inside and outside the suite, and a dedicated suite attendant. The US Open is no stranger to rain and humidity, so with a luxury box your guests will be inside a climate-controlled environment in case of any bad weather. Along with your suite ticket, guests will have exclusive access to Arthur Ashe Stadium lounges. Watching the U.S. Open in VIP style is the perfect event to treat your clients to. The premium seating experts at SuiteHop are your resource for planning an unforgettable event.Pricing & AvailabilityWhere do your US Open Tennis Championship suites & VIP tickets come from?On SuiteHop, premium tickets can only be listed by Verified Listing Partners. Our listing partners are carefully vetted and we build direct relationships with each one to reliably ensure every US Open Tennis Championship suite and individual ticket order is verified and available for sale.Are US Open Tennis Championship suite prices negotiable?We cannot negotiate US Open Tennis Championship suite prices or other premium seats for any event. SuiteHop is an online marketplace, meaning we do not set prices. Our listing partners determine the cost for each rental and upload it directly for access on SuiteHop. The price you see is exactly what you will pay for the suite or VIP tickets as outlined in the listing. There are no service fees and shipping is always included for free.I don't see a listing for the kind of US Open Tennis Championship suite I need. Can you help?Yes! We have relationships with hundreds of suite owners who trust us to market their suites but prefer not to publicly list them on SuiteHop. If you don't see what you need on the website, or your order is especially complex, please contact us and we'll let you know if any additional options are available.Why should I book my US Open Tennis Championship suite with SuiteHop?Booking a suite, or any premium seating can be a particularly complicated experience. Your dedicated premium seating expert will help you navigate the VIP ticket market and select the suite or seats that best fit your needs, budget, and goals. After booking, you'll work directly with a SuiteHop customer service expert to finalize ticket delivery and determine if you'd like to order catering for your event.Catering, Food, & DrinksIs catering included in the US Open Tennis Championship suite price?No, catering is not typically included in the suite price. Catering information is provided in each US Open Tennis Championship suite listing. If catering isn't included in your purchase, you'll have the option of purchasing food directly from the venue-provided suite caterers or at the concession stands. Outside food and beverages are not allowed inside the suites or the venue. Catering is not available for premium club seats. US Open Tennis Championship club ticket holders typically have in-seat service with premium food and beverage options in the exclusive club lounge. US Open Tennis Championship Ticket DeliveryWhen can I expect the US Open Tennis Championship tickets for my event?US Open Tennis Championship tickets are digital and will be transferred to you by email. On occasion, suite tickets are not released until several days before the event date. In the rare occasion, your tickets are hard-printed, we will ship the US Open Tennis Championship suite tickets for your event as soon as possible. Don't worry, we guarantee we will always get your tickets to you in time for your event. Locations, Amenities, & FeaturesWhy can't I see the exact location of the US Open Tennis Championship suite or VIP seat?Every US Open Tennis Championship listing you see on SuiteHop is for a specific location. For the privacy of our sellers, we've created a "zone" system that places suites or club seats of similar quality and location into groupings of approximate locations on our map. This provides a good understanding of what view you can expect from your US Open Tennis Championship premium ticket booking. After you've made your purchase you'll receive full details about the exact suite number or seat location.Are the private restrooms in the suite?Sometimes, depending on the venue and the specific suite. All suites and venues are unique. We've outlined what you can expect in our listings. Suites typically include access to the club level where restrooms are less crowded.What's in the US Open Tennis Championship suite?While suites vary, most will include multiple comfortable seating options such as couches, love seats, bar stools, and stadium seats. You can also expect to see TVs, a kitchenette, a closet for your belongings, and ample countertops and tables for your snacks. You'll also likely have full shelter from the weather in the climate-controlled space and a great view of the action.Access, Bringing Guests, & Day-Of-Event PlanningCan I bring people into the US Open Tennis Championship suite that do not have suite tickets?Only guests with US Open Tennis Championship suite tickets are permitted to enter your suite. Venues monitor the capacity of the suites very closely, and inviting guests into the suite without a suite ticket is strictly prohibited.Do kids need tickets to get in?At most venues, infants two and under are free! All children 3 and older require a ticket.How early can I get into the US Open Tennis Championship suite, and how long after the event is over can we stay?Each venue differs, but most suites open when the gates to the event open. Generally speaking, you will be able to stay in your US Open Tennis Championship suite for one hour after the event ends.Can I use a US Open Tennis Championship suite to host a meeting before my event?Leveraging an event is a great way to draw an audience for a meeting, product demonstration, or presentation. Many venues are equipped to host your meeting either in the suite or in a meeting room in the venue. We're happy to help you coordinate these details with the venue's parking included?Parking details will be outlined in both the US Open Tennis Championship premium seating listing and suite contract. If you'd like to secure parking for your event, notify your suite expert.Cancellations, Refunds, & Lost TicketsWhat happens if my US Open Tennis Championship event is canceled?We follow the same policy as the venue hosting your event. You will receive a full refund for a canceled event that is not rescheduled. For rescheduled events, your tickets for club seats and the suite will be valid for the new date. This is particularly important in the case of a rain cancellation at a baseball game. Please refer to local media to determine if your game is immediately rescheduled.What is SuiteHop's refund policy?All suites and premium ticket sales are final.What happens if I lose my US Open Tennis Championship tickets?In most cases, lost suite tickets are unable to be replaced. If you are distributing your VIP tickets to a group of people either in your suite or within premium seating areas, make sure to note the exact ticket that you give to each person. Knowing which tickets you distribute can help when it is possible to get a ticket reprinted.
