It affects how characters can act, speak, and in general how history moves. has simple commands that you need to type in your script so that characters make certain dialogs and actions in your story. There is a script writing tutorial on the online writer's portal and an in-game guide. This is a basic example script of abetween two characters and a change of scene: MOM (talk_happy_smile) What's wrong, honey? Nothing, I just wanted to introduce you to my friend! MOM (talk_forward) Nice to meet you! SALLIE (talk_forward) This is my mother. It's very exciting. She believes in female empowerment and women doing things for themselves. Well, honey, I have to go to work. MOM (talk_forward) Nice to meet you! Character animations Characters in a story can perform basic animations to make history visually interesting and this helps characters look and act more realistic. To make a character do a short animation while delivering a line, the script you would write in would be like: Hey, Alfie!
