By Liz Jacobs Mozilla Firefox is a Web browser similar to Internet Explorer or Google Chrome. The browser is a part of the Mozilla Application Suite. Firefox makes downloading movies simple because once you download, a window pops up that lets you immediately access the download. Downloading a movie in Firefox is very similar to downloading a movie in any other browser. However, the download window looks different because Firefox has it's own unique browser interface. Go to a site like Netflix, Movie Downloads, #1 Online Movie Downloads, Joost or Hulu. (See Resources and References). Sign up for the site. Some sites offer a 30-day free trial. Some sites listed are completely free. Select the category "Films." Click on the film genre you want to see such as comedy, drama or horror. Click the particular film you're interested in. Click "Download." Some sites, such as Hulu, don't include a download button. Their movies stream over the net. To download them, go to a site like KeepVid, Video Downloader or Vidimonkey. Copy the URL of the movie you'd like to download. Put the URL in the box on KeepVid, Video Downloader or Vidmonkey. Click "Submit." and your movie will begin downloading to your computer. Click on the file from the download window. Click "Open." Your movie will begin playing. Image: Marvel Studios When Marvel released "Guardians of the Galaxy," pretty much no one outside of some serious comic book fans had ever heard of them before. Even amongst comics fans, the Guardians were a pretty underrated crew that had been in the background for years. But the movie brought them to life in a way that blew people's minds. They were unlike any other team; a swashbuckling crew of space pirates who didn't get along, didn't follow the rules and didn't look like normal heroes at all. With a tree, a raccoon and a trio of human-like adventurers all with intense personalities, they were instant fan favorites. The sequel just cemented their place as a cornerstone of the Marvel Universe and their appearance in "Avengers: Infinity War" made fans thirsty for more.The Guardians are a lot of fun and also a pretty diverse crew as well. Sure, it'd be great to be an Avenger, but it seems like the Guardians would take you in no matter what. They accept you for who you are, which is what any good family should do. If you ever found yourself watching them on screen and wishing you could join the adventure, you're not alone. But who would you be if you were part of the crew?
