H1b application form number

The information on this page is only for dependents of individuals sponsored for H-1B status by Johns Hopkins University. Eligibility for H-4 StatusLegally married spouses and unmarried children (under the age of 21) are eligible for H-4 status. H-4 status is dependent on the H-1B principal's status. Should the H-1B status end, H-4 status also ends. Obtaining H-4 StatusFrom outside the U.S.: The H-4 applicant(s) will use the H-1B approval notice, and evidence of their relationship to the H-1B principal, to apply for an H-4 visa stamp at a U.S. Consulate abroad. When the H-4 applicant(s) enters the U.S. with the valid H-4 visa and the H-1B approval notice, the officer at the U.S. port of entry should grant admission in H-4 status.From inside the U.S.: Form I-539 must be filed with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to request a change of status within the U.S. to H-4 status, or an extension of stay within the U.S of H-4 status. Form I-539 is typically included with the H-1B petition that OIS sends to USCIS. If for any reason you are considering filing an I-539 online or separate from the H-1B petition, you must consult the H-1B advisor assigned to your case *before* filing the I-539. Completing Form I-539 ALERT: Starting April 19, 2021, USCIS will only accept the 03/10/2021 edition of Form I-539. First, please carefully read the I-539 instructions. One form I-539, and one filing fee of $370 should be submitted per family, regardless of the number of H-4 applicants. A separate biometrics services fee of $85 should be included for each individual H-4 applicant. If there is more than one H-4 applicant, Form I-539A (I-539 instructions) should be completed for each additional applicant (co-applicant). Checks or money orders for the I-539 filing fee and the biometrics services fee(s) should be made payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security."Download & complete Form I-539 (and I-539A(s) if applicable), then print the I-539/I-539A(s) single-sided and have the eldest H-4 applicant sign in black pen. If all dependents applying for H-4 status are minors (under the age of 18 years), the H-1B principal should sign the I-539 in Part 5 "Applicant's Signature" AND in Part 7, "Signature of person preparing form, if other than above," indicating "Parent of Minor" in the section titled "Firm Name and Address."The original, signed Form I-539 (and I-539A(s) if applicable), I-539 filing fee, biometrics fee(s), and supporting documents** should be sent to the H-1B advisor who has been assigned the H-1B case. When your H-1B case is assigned to an advisor, you will receive an email from with subject line "H-1B Case Assigned to OIS Advisor." Please contact the advisor named in that email for their mailing address.** We also encourage applicants to send Form G-1145 with Form I-539. The G-1145 is used to request an electronic notification (e-Notification) when USCIS accepts the I-539 form for processing. ****Please refer to the Dependent Checklist for a list of required supporting documents. Poverty Guidelines: I-864P For forms I-864, I-864A or I-864EZ, select Affidavit of Support Forms, to download these USCIS forms. Important Note: The National Visa Center (NVC) cannot accept Form I-134 for immigrant visa processing. The NVC only accepts the appropriate I-864 form(s) listed above. If you are looking for all other forms that begin with "I" (such as I-130, I-539, etc), these forms come from the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in the Department of Homeland Security. You may download them from the USCIS forms page. Overview Please confirm whether or not you need to apply for a visa. You may not need to apply for a new U.S. visa if you already hold a valid U.S. visa, or are a national of a Visa Waiver Program participating country, or are qualified to Travel Without a Visa. Please note: We do not pre-adjudicate visa applications and, therefore, cannot advise you of the outcome of any future application; We will not answer questions concerning your eligibility to apply for visa. If you do need to apply for a nonimmigrant visa, please follow the steps below. How to ApplySTEP 1: CHOOSE YOUR VISA TYPE Determine your visa type by reading Common Nonimmigrant Visas. Each visa type explains the qualifications and application items. Choose the visa type that applies to your situation. Make sure you are familiar with the type of visa that is appropriate for your purpose of travel. Be sure to also review the Visa Waiver Program (VWP). If your country participates in the VWP (Taiwan is currently one of the participants), generally speaking, you do not need to apply for a visa if you are traveling for business or pleasure, meet all VWP criteria, and will only be staying in the United States for 90 days or less. If you have ever been arrested and/or convicted, have a medical ineligibility, or have been denied entry into or deported from the United States, you should apply for a visa. On the day of the interview you are required to furnish documents relating to your situation. Please click here for relevant links on the different types of visa ineligibilities. STEP 5: APPEAR AT AIT FOR AN INTERVIEWVisit the American Institute in Taiwan on the date and time of your visa interview. You must bring: A valid passport. Most visa applicants must have a passport valid for at least 6 months past the date of their anticipated departure from the United States. Taiwan passport holders and passport holders from certain countriesmay enter the United States with passports that will expire in less than 6 months. However, they will not be permitted to remain in the U.S. beyond the validity of their passports. A printout of your DS-160 confirmation page. Please make sure the printed barcodes are clear. Incomplete, incorrect, or unclear barcodes will NOT be accepted and will result in cancellation of your appointment. One color photograph (5cmx5cm) taken within the last six months with a white or off-white background. Eyeglasses are NOT allowed in visa photos. This web page has information about the required photo format. All other required documents for your visa type. Click here and select your visa type to learn more. Access to AIT Consular Section waiting area is limited to the following: Applicants; Parents or legal guardians of applicants under 18 years old; Aides of disabled applicants Visa appointment holders must have an appointment confirmation page and may not be admitted more than 10 minutes before or after their appointment. Please review AIT's security regulations prior to your visit. In particular, please note the rules regarding Personal Electronic Devices (PEDs). how to file h1b application form. what documents are needed for h1b application
