Neuropol is a broad, sharply futuristic typeface designed in 1996. The design is based on the rounded squares that were prominent in previous techno typefaces like Microgramma, Digital, and Chimes. The superelliptical stroke ends give Neuropol a harmonized appearance. Truncated horizontal strokes are reminiscent of laser or vector-beam traces. Several Neuropol-related typefaces have been released during the previous few decades. In 2004, Neuropol was redesigned and enlarged into Neuropol X. Although the original Neuropol font was retired at the time, some customers still favor the 1996 version. The original 1996 Neuropol was repaired and re-released in 2015. Improved kerning, larger dots on I and j, cleaner curves, heavier accents, more languages, more punctuation, the most recent monetary symbols, and a better @ symbol are among the changes. You can access a complete Z, identical to the one in Neuropol X, if your program supports OpenType stylistic alternates. Most Latin-based European writing systems are supported, including the following languages. Afaan Oromo, Afaan Oromoo, Afaan Oromoo, Afaan Oromoo, Afrikaans, Albanian, Alsatian, Aromanian, Aymara, Bashkir (Latin), Basque, Belarusian (Latin), Bemba, Bicol, Bosnian, Breton, Cape Verdean, Creole, Catalan, Cebuano, Chamorro, Chavacano, Chichewa, Crimean Tatar (Latin), Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dawan, Dholuo, Dutch, English, Estonian, Faroese, Fijian, Filipino, Finnish, French, Frisian, Friulian, Gagauz (Latin), Galician, Ganda, Genoese, German, Greenlandic, Guadeloupean Creole, Haitian Creole, Hawaiian, Hiligaynon, Hungarian, Icelandic, Ilocano, Indonesian, Irish, Italian, Jamaican, Kaqchikel, Karakalpak (Latin), Kashubian, Kikongo, Kinyarwanda, Kirundi, Kurdish (Latin), Latvian, Lithuanian, Lombard, Low Saxon, Luxembourgish, Maasai, Makhuwa, Malay, Maltese, Mori, Moldovan, Montenegrin, Ndebele, Neapolitan, Norwegian, Novial, Occitan, Ossetian (Latin), Papiamentu, Piedmontese, Polish, Portuguese, Quechua, Rarotongan, Romanian, Romansh, Sami, Sango, Saramaccan, Sardinian, Scottish Gaelic, Serbian (Latin), Shona, Sicilian, Silesian, Slovak, Slovenian, Somali, Sorbian, Sotho, Spanish, Swahili, Swazi, Swedish, Tagalog, Tahitian, Tetum, Tongan, Tshiluba, Tsonga, Tswana, Tumbuka, Turkish, Turkmen (Latin), Tuvanian, Uzbek (Latin), Venetian, Vepsian, Vro, Walloon, Waray-Waray, Wayuu, Welsh, Wolof, Xhosa, Yapepe, Zapotec Zulu and Zuni.More...First seen on DaFont: before 2005 - Updated: April 05, 2024 English Franais Espaol Deutsch Italiano Portugus Top1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 ... 401.
