Play PUBG Mobile on lower end smartphone The Android version of the famous battle royale The Korean version of the exceptional PUBG A beta version of PUBG Mobile Lite Free Fire - Battlegrounds A fast and light royal battle A fun summer adventure The official version of PUBG BETA The famous royal battle -- now for Android We use cookies to improve our site and your experience. By continuing to browse our website you accept our cookie policy For a better user experience, use the latest version of Internet Explorer or switch to another browser. Devices with a lack of storage will prevent applications from installing and can bring users who see a "Insufficient Storage" or "Insufficient Storage Available" message on Android or "Not enough storage" on iOS. These errors can be displayed even if the device says it has free space. If you receive a storage message, try the following based on your device. Android Free storage space by deleting the cache on other applications. Open the Settings app on your device. Go to your apps. This can be called Apps, Apps & Notifications, App Manager, or Manage Apps depending on your device. Tap the menu or multiple button and choose Sort by size. Your apps will be listed from which to take the most storage space. Tap an application that occupies a large amount of storage space. Tap Storage. Tap Clear Cache. Try to access Call of Duty: Mobile again. If you see the insufficient storage message again, repeat theabove for other applications and try again. Some Android devices include a method to clear the cache on all applications at once. Open the Settings app on your device. Tap Storage to view a detailed breakdown of all data stored in the cache. (Storage is typically in a tab or section called System.) Tap the data waiting. Tap Delete to erase the cached data for all your applications. You can also choose to uninstall applications that you no longer use or delete large files from your device. iOS While the message "Not enough storage" is less common on iOS devices than the Android equivalent, it can still come from time to time. However, if you receive a storage message, there are some things you can do to free up storage space. iCloud Backup Management can be set to automatically backup your iOS device along with photos, videos, app data and other important information you have stored. Therefore, you can safely delete files from the device you have backed up using iCloud. Learn how to configure iCloud and manage what is stored on iCloud. Delete apps you no longer use Open the Settings app on your device. Tap General, then tap iPhone Storage or iPad Storage. Review the list of apps, which are sorted by size and display the last time the app was used. Tap any application you want to delete. Tap Delete App. Try to access Call of Duty: Mobile again. If you see again the message "Not enough storage", repeat the above steps for other applications and try again. CoD Mobile S9 is here) Call of Duty Mobile Season 9 is finally here. The latest update brings new content, modes, bug fixes and improvements among others. The CoD Mobile Season 9 update is available for both Android and iOS users. How do you play Season 9? The last season is available via an update on Google Play Store (for Android.) The update is over 1GB size, so we recommend using Wi-Fi to save your mobile data. Once you have installed the update, you will have to do additional in-app downloads to start with the ranked game maps and other features. What's new in Season 9Spanish 1944 One of the biggest highlights of the update of season 9 is the arrival of the 1944 shipping map. Another call from Duty Classic, the map is very small in size. The expedition supports Team Death Match, Domination, Free-For-All, Hardpoint, Gunfight, Ultra Rapid Fire, 1v1, Kill Confirmed, Team Death Match 10v10. We played Hardpoint and Domination modes (unclassified samples) on the new map so far. We recommend using lighter weapons that helps you move faster. Shots can also be useful on the map. We also recommend using scorestreaks in the game more often and quickly to keep the moment. — Call of Duty: Mobile @ (PlayCODMobile) August 15, 2020 Gunsmith Players can now choose from different attachments to customize their weapons. The Gunsmith also offers you a better interface to customize your weapons. Call of Duty Mobile has also made some changes to the weapons format that you have so far collected. For example, legendary and epic weapons are now Blueprints. Rare and common weapons are now camo options. Some of the items available for further customization are charm, stickers, lattices and camos grindable. Gunsmith allows you to customize almost every weapon. A detailed interface makes it easier to know what changes you are making to the weapon. That said, you may need to update some of your guns. Make sure you do not run out of XPs while doing so. 6Scheduled Random Series to get out later today, Call of Duty Mobile will have a new set of matches ranked. The new season will also see the debut of Tengu – Undead Crusade Soldier, Bomber Frame, and QQ9- Eye Candy epica blueprint. 10v10Soon, you will be able to play longer 10v10 games. It will be available for multiplayer users. Supported modes are Team Deathmatch and Domination. You can play 10v10 in Shipments, Takeoff, Meltdown and Crossfire maps. Battle Royale For Battle Royale players, the new update brings an expanded map with four new areas to explore: Outpost, Dormitory, Radar Base and Campground. The updated map also has a new element of the armor plate. You can use the armor plate to repair damaged armor. This will help you stay in a game for a longer time period. Shield TurretAt Tier 14, all Call of Duty Mobile players unlock the new Shield Turret Scorestreak. The new weapon allows users to blow up enemies from behind its integrated cover. In Tier 21, you will be entitled to Kiltolt is essentially a new functional weapon that makes mobility easier as well as helps you get a kill shot. As you move to levels, you will unlock objects like rare RUS-79U – Obstacle (Tier 36) and BY15– Obstacle (Tier 41), and a new weapon charm Soldato toy (at Tier 46).
