Prayer Before A Crucifix Prayer to Jesus Crucified Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Th y sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul, I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, with true contrition for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment; while with deep affection and grief of soul, I ponder within myself and mentally contemplate Th y five wounds, having before my eyes the words which David the prophet put on Th y lips concerning Thee: "They have pierced My hands and My feet, they have numbered all My bones." At the end, one Our Father and Hail Mary, at least, for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff for a plenary indulgence. Wounded with his every wound, steep my soul till it hath swooned in His very blood away. Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, lest in flames I burn and die, in that awful judgment day. Christ, when thou shalt call me hence, be Thy mother my defense, be Thy cross my victory. While my body here decays, may my soul Thy goodness praise, safe in Paradise with Thee. My adorable Jesus, it was not Pilate, no, it was my sins that condemned Thee to die. The soldiers struck Him rudely, and thus He fell several times in His journey. My beloved Jesus, it is not the weight of the Cross, but my sins, which have made Thee suffer so much pain. Ah, by the merits of this first fall, deliver me from the misfortune of falling into mortal sin. It's a verb so it is pronounced with the long A sound (the adjective uses the short vowel sound). His weakness was extreme, and the cruelty of His executioners was excessive, who tried to hasten His steps when He had scarcely strength to move. Ah, my outraged Jesus, by the merits of the weakness Thou didst suffer in going to Calvary, give me strength sufficient to conquer all human respect, and all my wicked passions, which have led me to despise Thy friendship. 4.
