Download Article An overview of the mandatory and optional rakat of Isha Download Article Isha is the last of the five daily prayers in Islam, a very demonstration of faith for practicing Muslims. Isha consists of various rakat, or combinations of prayers and prostrations, some of which are optional and others which are mandatory. Keep reading to find out how many rakat there are in this final daily prayer, how to perform them, and how this number compares to the other 4 daily prayers. The Isha prayer has 4 mandatory rakat called Fard and 13 optional rakat called Sunnah, Nafl, and Witr.Perform the Fard rakat by proclaiming Allahu Akbar (God is the greatest.) and moving your body between standing, kneeling, and prostrating.The Sunnah, Nafl, and Witr prayers are all optional, but each has special benefits that can bring you closer to Allah.There are 4 mandatory and 13 optional rakat in the Isha prayer. Isha is one of the five daily prayers (salat) Muslims perform. Each prayer consists of certain repetitive cycles of prayers, bows, and prostrations known as rakat. The Isha prayer is performed after twilight but before midnight, and it consists of 4 mandatory rakat known as Fard and 13 optional rakat called Sunnah, Nafl, and Witr. The rakat are performed in the following order:1)Sunnah Ghair muakkadah: 4 rakatSunnah Ghair muakkadah are non-confirmed Sunnah that the Prophet Muhammad only sometimes performed.Fard: 4 rakatSunnah muakkadah: 2 rakatSunnah muakkadah are confirmed Sunnah prayers which the Prophet Muhammad always performed and never omitted. They're still optional but more recommended than the Sunnah Ghair muakkadah.Nafl: 2 rakatNafl are completely optional prayers that are said to draw a person closer to Allah.Witr: 3 rakatWhile many Muslims view Witr as a voluntary prayer, some believe that its obligatory to perform alongside Fard.You have the option to perform 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 or 13 rakat of Witr.Nafl: 2 rakatThe rakat for each type of prayer are performed with the same recitations and body movements. Some may have additional recitations depending on the prayer. Advertisement:1)Wash yourself with clean water. Prepare yourself to pray by first performing wudu, which is a ritual cleansing. Start by washing your hands and face, then wash your face and inhale a small amount of the water through your nose. Lastly, wash your feet. In terms of clothing, men are required to cover the front and back of their bodies from the navel to the knees. They must also cover their shoulders. The garments they wear must be loose and not transparent.Women must cover their entire bodies except for their hands and faces, their clothing must also be loose but not transparent in any way.2)Stand facing Mecca and say Allahu Akbar. Clear your mind and focus on your intention to pray. This intention is known as niyyat. Once you're ready, raise your hands to either side of your head and say Allahu Akbar (God is the greatest.). Then, place your right hand on your chest and recite Aoothu billaahi minash-shaytan-ir-rajeeem (I seek refuge with Allah from Satan the accursed.).This opening sequence is called the Takbir:3)Recite the first chapter of the Quran followed by another chapter. Remain standing and keep your right hand on your chest. In this position, recite the Sur al-Fatiha; the very first chapter of the Quran. When you're finished, choose any other passage from the Quran that you'd like to read, such as the Surat al-Ikhlas. The two passages are as follows:[2]Surat al-Fatiha: Bismillilaahir-Rahmaanir-Raheem Al-hamdu lillaahi rabbil- aalameen Arrahmaanir raheem Maalikul yawm-dheen Iyyaaka na 'budu wa iyyaaka nasta' een Ihdinaa sirraat-al-mustaqeem sirraat al-ladheena an 'anta 'alayhim ghayruli maghdoobi' alayhi wa lad-daalileenIn the Name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate Praise belongs to God, Lord of the world, the Merciful, the Compassionate, Master of the Day of Judgement; We worship only You, and from You alone do we seek help. Lead us on the straight path, the path of those whom You have blessed, not of those who have [Your] Wrath, nor of those who have gone astray.Surat al-Ikhlas: Bismillilaahir-Rahmaanir-Raheem Qul huwallaahu ahad / Allaaahu samad Lam yalid walam yoolad Wa lam yakulluhal kufuwan ahadin The Name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate Say: He is God, the One, God the Eternal and Besought of all, Neither begetting nor begot, Nor is there anything comparable or equal to Him.4)Say Allahu Akbar and bow the waist. Bring your hands to your chest and recite Allahu Akbar once more. Then, bend the waist until you can place your right hand on your knee. Once you're in this position, say Subhaana rabbiy azeen (I praise Allah, the Great, and praise belongs to Him). Next, stand straight again and say Sami allahu liman hamidah (God hears the one who praises Him)[35]Say Allahu Akbar and get on your hands and knees. As you recite the Takbir once more, lower yourself into a prostrating position so that your forehead, nose, knees, palms, and big toes are touching the ground. This position is called the sujud. In this position, say, Subhaana rabbiy al-a laa wa biamdih (Glory be to my Exalted Lord, and praise belongs to Him).[4]6)Sit back on your heels and say Allahu Akbar, then Rabbighfirlee. Sit upright and place your weight on your left thigh. Rest your left foot flat on the ground, keep your right foot upright with just your toes touching the ground, and place your hands on your knees. In this position, recite the Allahu Akbar once again and then say Rabbighfirlee (Oh Allah, forgive me.).[5]7)Return to the sujud position and say Allahu Akbar. For the final part of the first rakat, return to the prostrating position on your hands and knees and say Allahu Akbar as you lower your body. Once in this position, say, Subhaana Rabbiiy-al-Aalaa (Glory be to my Lord, the Highest) 3 times. You've now completed the first rakat of Isha.[6] Advertisement:1)Stand up and repeat the first rakah once more. Stand up from your prostrating position, raise your hands up near your earlobes, and say Allahu Akbar to start the first rakah once again. Then, proceed to say the Surat al-Fatiha and complete the first rakah all the way through the final sujud position.2)Sit back on your heels with your right index finger raised. Say Allahu Akbar once more, then assume the kneeling position once more placing your weight on your left thigh. Press the front of your left foot flat to the ground and only have the toes of your right foot on the ground. Then, place your hands on your knees and raise your right index finger so that its pointing toward Mecca. In this position, recite the Tashahud: Ash hadu al laa ilaaha illallaahu wahdahu laa shareeka laa, wa ash hadu aana Muhammadan ' abdahu wa rasuluh Allaaahumma salii ' alaa Muhammadin wa Aali Muhammad! bear witness that there is no deity except Allah, Who is unique and without partners. I also bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and His Prophet. O God, bless Muhammad and the progeny of Muhammad. Advertisement:1)Repeat the first rakah. Stand back up, recite Allahu Akbar with your hands raised, and repeat the first rakah once more to complete the third rakah. However, instead of reciting the Surat al-Fatiha, you have the option of saying the al-Tashibat al-Arbaah 3 times. After this, continue performing the first rakat until the very last sujud position. The al-Tashibat al-Arbaah is as follows:[7]Subhaanallaahi wal hamdu lillaahi wa laa ilaaha illallaahu wallaahu akbar!Glory be to God, and praise be to God; there is no god but Allah, and Allah is Greater.2)Perform the second rakah once more. The fourth rakah is simply a repetition of the second rakah. Go through the motions of the second rakah once more at the way through reciting the Tashahud. You've now completed the 4 Fard of the Isha prayer and are now ready to move on to completing the prayer.[8]3)Sit in the kneeling position with your right index finger raised. Maintain the kneeling position that you ended up in at the end of the fourth rakah, placing your weight on your left thigh and raising your right index finger to point toward Mecca. Then, recite the following prayer:Allaahumma salii alaa Muhammadii wa alaa aali Muhammadim, kamaa salaayta alaa Ibraheema wa alaa aali Ibraheema, innaka Hameedum Majeed. Allaaahumma baarik alaa Muhammadii wa alaa aali Muhammadim, kamaa baarakta alaa Ibraheema wa alaa aali Ibraheema, innaka Hameedum MajeedO Allah, send Your mercy upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, just as You sent mercy upon Ibrahim and the family of Ibrahim. Truly You are Praiseworthy and Glorious. O Allah, send blessings upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad, just as You sent blessings upon Ibrahim and the family of Ibrahim. Truly You are Praiseworthy and Glorious.4)Finish by reciting the Taslim. Remain in the kneeling position, turn your head to the right, and say, Assaalamu aleykum wa rahmatullahu (May Allahs peace and mercy be upon you). Then, turn your head to the left and repeat the verse to officially finish the fourth rakah.[9] Advertisement:1)There are various Sunnah and Nafl prayers to choose from. These prayers are completely optional, and you're free to choose which prayers you'll perform before and after you've completed the compulsory Fard rakat. Some examples of Sunnah and Nafl prayers include: Salat ul Taubah (Prayer of Repentance). This prayer usually has 2 rakat, and you should only perform it when you are looking for forgiveness for your sins.Salaat ul Istikhsaarah (Prayer of Seeking Counsel). You perform this prayer when you're seeking Allahs guidance about a decision in your life. This prayer usually has 2 rakat.Tahajjud (Night Prayer). This Nafl can only be performed after Isha, and people pray it to gain mental strength and peace. It can have 2 to 12 rakat depending on how many you choose to perform. Some believe that Sunnah and Nafl prayers are the same, while others argue that Sunnah prayers are specifically those that the Prophet Muhammad did persistently.2)Many people usually perform 3 rakat of Witr. The rakat Muslims perform during the Witr prayer are the same as those in the Fard prayer. Since there's an odd number of rakat, you have the option of performing all 3 one after another with 1 recitation of the Tashahud, or performing 2 rakat together, reciting the Taslim, then performing the last rakah on its own. After reciting the Surat al-Fatiha, many recommend reciting the Surat al-Afaa for the first rakat, Surat al Kaafroon for the second, and Surat al-Ikhlâas for the third.The last rakah often includes a supplication called Quunot, which is an additional recitation you say before ruku (kneeling), or after ruku while standing. The supplication is:Allaaahumma ihdinee feeman hadayta wa 'aafinee feeman 'aafayta wa tawallanee feeman tawallayta, wa baarik lee feemaa 'a tayta, waqinee sharra ma qadayta, fainnaka taqdee wa laa yuqdaa ' alayka, innahu laa yadhillu man walayta, wa laa ya 'izu man 'adayta, taabaarakta rabbannaa wa ta' aalaytaO Allah, guide me along with those whom You have guided, pardon me along with those whom You have pardoned, be an ally to me along with those whom You are an ally to and bless for me that which You have bestowed. Protect me from the evil You have decreed, for verily You decree and none can decree over You. For surely, he whom You show allegiance to is never abused and he whom You take as an enemy is never honored and mighty. O our Lord, Blessed and Exalted are you. It is one of the five daily prayers prescribed by Allah to maintain a spiritual connection with Him. Observing Isha not only fulfills a religious obligation but also provides a moment of tranquility and reflection amidst the hustle and bustle of daily life.A question often asked by those new to the faith or unfamiliar with its practices is, How many rakats in Isha? This short guide aims to provide a comprehensive answer to this query, shedding light on the number of units (rakats) that constitute the Isha prayer. Understanding the correct number of rakats is crucial for the integrity of worship and to ensure adherence to the teachings of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). So, let us delve into the details to gain a better understanding of this essential aspect of the Islamic faith.Understanding the Isha PrayerThe Isha prayer is one of the five daily prayers in Islam, also known as Salah or Namaz. It holds immense significance for Muslims as it is performed after sunset and before midnight, marking the end of the day and the beginning of the night. The Isha prayer is considered obligatory for all adult Muslims and is a means of seeking closeness to Allah and seeking forgiveness for sins committed throughout the day.Timing plays a crucial role in performing the Isha prayer. It starts when the red glow in the sky disappears and continues until one-third of the night has passed. However, it is encouraged to perform the Isha prayer early in its designated time to gain greater spiritual rewards.How Many Rakats in Isha?The number of Rakats (units of prayer) in the Isha prayer has been a topic of discussion among Islamic scholars. While there is unanimity that the obligatory Rakats in Isha prayer are four, there are differences of opinion regarding the number of additional voluntary Rakats that can be performed.According to the majority of Sunni scholars, the Isha prayer consists of four obligatory Rakats, followed by two Sunnah Rakats and two Nafl Rakats. The Sunnah Rakats are highly recommended and are considered to have a special significance in gaining additional rewards from Allah. They are performed in pairs before the obligatory Rakats of Isha prayer. The Nafl Rakats, on the other hand, are voluntary prayers that can be performed individually or in sets of two, after the Sunnah Rakats.On the contrary, Shia scholars have a slightly different perspective on the number of Rakats in Isha prayer. According to Shia tradition, the Isha prayer consists of four obligatory Rakats, followed by two Rakats of recommended prayer called Witr. The Witr prayer is performed separately from the Nafl prayers.It is important to note that while there are differences in the number and order of Rakats between Sunni and Shia scholars, both emphasize the significance of these additional prayers and encourage their performance. It is essential for Muslims to seek guidance from their respective schools of thought or local imams for a clearer understanding of the specific practices and variations followed within their communities.Owning the Isha prayer serves as a means of establishing a connection with Allah and seeking spiritual nourishment after the day's activities. It is a unique opportunity for Muslims to reflect on their day, seek forgiveness, as well as to express gratitude for the blessings received. By performing the Isha prayer with sincerity and consistency, one can experience its numerous benefits and seek closeness to the Divine. How many Rakats in Isha?Overview of the number of Rakats in Isha prayerThe Isha prayer, also known as the Evening Prayer, is an important prayer in Islam that is performed after sunset and before midnight. It is one of the five daily obligatory prayers for Muslims. Like other prayers, Isha is composed of a specific number of Rakats units of prayer.Different opinions among Islamic scholarsWhen it comes to the exact number of Rakats in Isha prayer, there are different opinions among Islamic scholars. This is primarily due to variations in the interpretation of hadiths (sayings of the Prophet Muhammad) and the teachings of different Islamic schools of thought.Some scholars argue that Isha consists of four Rakats, while others believe it should be eight Rakats. There are even some minority opinions that suggest different numbers. These differences in opinion have led to varying practices among different Muslim communities around the world.In light of these differences, it is important for individuals to seek guidance from knowledgeable scholars or local imams to understand the preferred practice in their specific community.It is worth noting that while there may be variations in the number of Rakats, the core essence of the Isha prayer remains consistent to establish a connection with Allah and seek His forgiveness, guidance, and blessings.By understanding the different opinions surrounding the number of Rakats in Isha prayer, Muslims can engage in a respectful and informed dialogue to appreciate the diversity within the Islamic faith.Furthermore, the differences in practices should not be a source of division or conflict among Muslims, but rather an opportunity for mutual respect and acceptance. Islam teaches unity and brotherhood amongst its followers, regardless of the minor differences in rituals or practices. Ultimately, what matters most is the sincerity and devotion with which a prayer is offered rather than the specific number of Rakats. Muslims should focus on the spiritual connection established during the Isha prayer and the intentions behind their actions.Explanation of the number and order of Rakats in Isha prayerAccording to the
