Are you thinking of perming your gray hair? Let me tell you now that this does not matter how many years you have, it is quite possible as gray hair. Are you an older woman like me? Go ahead, get a Perm! You will not regret it. . Of course, you will have to get an alkaline perm, which uses a much stronger liquid than the usual perm.âã, more in addition, it will depend on the present health of your hair and your length. So you can choose the type of wave that best shows off your facial features. Because lettives be real, when you spend your fifty, with your hands the clockÃ¢s seem to have taken a Red Bull. à q appeared to make them grow wings. Time passes. And shows in our falls falls that we can not rise, even with the help of some sticks also notice that our wrinkles begin to reveal the wisdom that comes with the years, and that our skin is As a map of the experiences they lived. Donâ€™t Misunderstand T-Me! I proudly use my gray hair. After all, it was a decision of my own to let them surface, tired of having a compromise in the hairdresser every twenty days. But as the months passed, something did not convince me. I looked in the mirror and looked like my gray hair needed some styling help. It seemed off, gray wires glued to the sides of my face, no volume and without Mememement, so I heard Perms were back in style. It was as if I had taken a trip back to the 80's! I remembered how, in my teenagers, we would like to move our curls around the rhythm of the music cyndi lauperÃ¢s, girls only want to have fun. ¢ So I took the decision. I adm my hair, despite my gray hair. Do you want to know what happened next? Place your glasses, Dona t let the presbyopia delay you, and keep reading, because I'll tell you: Everything you need to know if you want Perm your hair Gray 4 tips to take care of your perm you still have doubts Perms about? Youâ€™ t sure, why do you feel old? Inspire yourself with these looks. All you need to know about Perming Your Gray Hair The Day I Permed My Gray Hair I learned a lot of things. Despite the age, one should never stop learning. I learned, for example, that gray hair is quite difficult. Even when it comes to dyeing it. It is necessary to use a stronger peroxide to open your cutigula and allow the new pigment to deposit.ã, in addition, the gray hairs do not absorb moisture, nor release it as easily as Colorful hair would. When I called to schedule a consultation, the stylist, a hairdresser who had been recommended to me by a friend, and that is super professional, told me that I could come the next day. She wanted to look at my hair before deciding if I could get a perm. So, I watched the name, very hopeful. After looking at my gray hair, she told me she would make the Perm in fifteen days as long as my hair was healthy. During these fifteen days, she recommended that I had three or four intensive hydration treatments, so that my hair would get even stronger before the Perm. Finally, the day has come! Before choosing the right size rods, I didnâ€™ t want a very tight wave or a very loose wave, it explained that the Solution Perm would be alkaline. For me, that was as if she were talking to me in her Chinese, then explained that since my hair was gray was more resistant to chemical processes, then we had to use a stronger permanent solution. But on the brilliant side, this meant that the process wouldnan ¢ t need to heat, so there would be less hair damage or, it was a solution that was strong enough to change the natural pattern of my hair and add the body, but soft enough to avoid rupture dryness. In addition, my stylist would use a formula that had an illuminating agent, so that my gray hair wouldnâ€™ t yellow. I must say that my stylist is very professional, since before starting to put the solution to the perm, she performed a hair strand test.a that way, she could calculate with greater precision The time of exposition of chemical products in hair. Remember that Perm Solution can take longer to act on gray hair than colorful hair. Once the defined time passed, she removed the neutralizer of my hair and washed it with a shampoo created specifically for gray hair. This would prevent my hair with a green or yellow tone. When I looked in the mirror, I did not recognize myself. I had that excited 80s look I had in my teenagers. My hair had been rejuvenated, just like my features. I could not believe that adding a little movement and volume in my gray hair, it would take off a few years. 4 tips to take care of your new Perm, of course, my hairdresser sent me home with a written set of recommendations for my new hair: Wait 48 hours to wash your hair. Do not brush your curls. Use only one wide tooth comb. Nourish your hair at least once a week and every fifteen days, use a purple shampoo without sulphates to keep the yellow away from the gray hair. And now what I promised. I asked my hairdresser to give me some photos to show you different Perm look like gray hair. Because, thanks to God, the years were women more than forty and were condemned to wear short hair and uniforms are very behind us. Capillary freedom hit gray hair! Do you still have doubts on how to get a permission? Do not you dare because you feel old? Inspire yourself with these looks in the mirror. You are that mature woman who accepted gray hair with love and proudly ran through the world showing it. While you take care of her facial skin more than ever, based on testing every wrinkle and firm creams that appear in the market, you are still willing to go through a facelift. How do I know that? Because as you, I look in the mirror every day, and made a promise to treat me with empathy. Are you the type of woman who likes to keep your platinum locks? So, become the siby gypsy of your tribe and dare get a beach wave permee. According to my hairdresser, this look is for very bold mature women who are willing to take care of their hair extremely taking care of their hair. These gentle movements in your wires will make you remember when in the eighties you were the queen of the beach. After all, who said that at our age we can not use a crown? Now, if you have short hair, and you are tired of always seeming the same, my hairdresser suggests a partial root permission. In this way, you will give your roots an elevator, reaching volume without sacrificing the length of your hair. On the other hand, permeating your roots will also allow you to hide any areas where you do not have so much hair because we will not deceive ourselves, over the years they appear. But it's a look that you should take care carefully. If you have many wrinkles in your neck and they are very visible, this type of short hair may not favor you. Is your gray hair shoulder length longer? Even if your hair is up to five centimeters above shoulders, you can also benefit from losing only your ends. That way, if wrinkles in your neck are very visible, you can hide them at the same time adding movement to your ends. Finally, I opted for a bob cut with the Perm, with silver and loose curls, who softened my resources and highlighted my eyes of amancing. And I do not regret it. Because after all, renewing means living and even more when the passage of time is already perceptible in our hair and body. Do you have gray hair and thought about losing your hair? Do you feel that too old for a radical change? Nowadays, short pms Permed are a great option for women over 60!
