Episode community guidelines

(a Titles & Air Dates Guide) Last updated: Fri, 30 Apr 2021 -1:00 At a community college, a fast-talking defrocked lawyer forms a motley study group composed of high-school losers, newly divorced housewives, and old people who want to keep their minds active. Episode list & details from: TVmaze • TV.com Available Videos Appear Here - Powered by JustWatch in: Article stubs, Episode Interactive View source Comments Share Thats it? This article or section is a stub. You can help Episode Wiki by expanding it. Rules of Episode Interactive Wiki These rules consist of an informal perspective on how to interact on the wiki. These rules include how to properly edit articles, comment appropriately, etc. The Four Commandments of Episode Interactive Wiki Adding/Editing Articles Articles must contain the basic information needed for it to be a valid article. Articles on Episode stories are fine as long as they consist of the proper formatting and summary needed to explain the story. Absolutely no spoilers should not be added to stories and their articles without the tabbed spoiler warning. a) Articles created for stories must contain Episode story story image, introduction and the app summary, at least. Articles introducing stories must also have proper English grammar. Articles with incorrect format or incorrect grammar will be deleted. b) Articles created for story characters are prohibited, unless it is a main protagonist. This is done to save space on the wiki for more important articles related to stories, in general. You can create story articles and explain their characters in a section on the Episode story's article page. c) All fan made articles will be deleted as well. Adding Images to Wiki Adding any images to this wiki must pertain to images related to Episode stories or Episode main character articles. Any other images saved on the wiki will be deleted if they are not related to Episode Interactive. a) All images added to the wiki must be categorized from now on. There is currently an ongoing project to categorize any uncategorized images and all unnecessary images will be deleted. No Unacceptable Editing, Behavior, or Vandalism The following is never allowed on the Episode Interactive Wiki. All users who violate these three, simple policies will be blocked according to their violations. Users will be banned forever if they continue to spread their unacceptable behavior across the wiki and do so after some warnings. Editing in/Adding in Pass Codes Pass Codes are to be added to the comment section of the passcode article only. Users or anonymous users will be banned forever if they attempt to edit their pass codes into other articles. Also, if pass codes are added to the comment section of other articles unrelated to pass codes, those comments will be deleted and marked as spam. Article stubs Episode Interactive Community content is available under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise noted. What is or is not acceptable on the Episode Platform and in the Episode Community? Our Official Content Guidelines are as follows: If stories contain objectionable or offensive content, we may not be able to feature or host them on Episode. Stories must always be appropriate for all readers ages 13 or older, which means content would be objectionable if it, among other things: promotes or depicts excessive violence or assault, including but not limited to sexual assault, murder, and torture against humans or animals; includes hate speech or content that promotes hatred or discrimination against individuals or groups, on the basis of race, ethnic or national origin, religion, marital status, disability, gender, age, or sexual orientation; promotes suicide, self-harm, abuse, or bullying; promotes excessive alcohol, tobacco or drug use; promotes gambling, betting or casinos; portrays adult themes, including pornographic content, nudity, or prostitution; slanders or libels a person or third party, includes excessive use of profanity or sexually explicit phrases; advertises for outside products or services, including but not limited to website links, reviews, and promotional language; excessively promotes the use of firearms, explosives, and ammunition; or excessively promotes a political agenda. In addition, by submitting your story, you agree that it does not include any content that infringes on the intellectual property rights or rights of publicity or privacy of any third party. This may include using any of the following without permission: Any copyrights or works of authorship of other parties, including excerpts or passages taken from literary works, video games, television or film; References to corporate or business names; or Any references to real persons or places. If your story contains a scene that could be a trigger for some viewers, you should use a content warning. A content warning is a written notice that precedes potentially sensitive content. If we find that a story does not conform to the Content Guidelines listed above or our Terms of Service, we will contact the author via their portal account email and may suspend and/or remove that story from the platform. Authors who repeatedly violate Content Guidelines may be temporarily or permanently suspended from all or part of our platform. Please note these guidelines are subject to change. Hopefully, this clarifies some of the questions and concerns we receive around what is appropriate in our app. As always, please reach out to our Support Desk with any questions you have about content within your story.
