Glitter force candy transformation

Appearance and PersonalityMiyuki is the leader of the Cures in Smile Pretty Cure. She is a bright, energetic girl who loves fairy tales. Although she is a scatterbrain and often gets flustered easily, she has the determination to get what she wants and is seldom unhappy. She is optimistic and is fun to have around. Her alter ego is Cure Happy, and when she transforms her hair turns from dark pink to a lighter fuchsia pink and her hair is worn in low pigtails and a large loose curling strand.She is always happy and optimistic, making her seem very naive. Simple things such as eating cake can make her happy, and she is fond of using the phrase "Ultra happy!" to show her joy. In contrast, when things do not go her way, she shows her disappointment by saying "Ha~ppu~ppu". She is also extremely unreserved, openly asking Akane (Cure Sunny) and Yayoi (Cure Peace) to become Pretty Cure with her. She often openly proclaims her love for her friends, announcing that she really likes Reika (Cure Beauty) in episode 5 and Candy in episode 6.Cure HappyTransformation:Cure Happy Transformation HDCure Happy has the power of Holy Light. She can jump very high to the sky, but has troubles landing. She is also capable of flight. Her basic attack is Happy Shower (Sparkle Storm in Glitter Force). Later on, she gains the Miracle Jewel Decor which allows her to go into Tiara Mode in order to use their group attack, Rainbow Healing (Tiara Mode Torrent in Glitter Force).Princess HappyTransformation:Smile PreCure Princess Form TransformationAfter gaining her Pink Cherry Blossom Princess Decor and Princess Candle (Princess Wand in Glitter Force), Miyuki can transform into her Princess form. As Princess Happy, Miyuki can combine her powers with the other Cures in order to perform the group attack Rainbow Burst, and later on an enhanced version known as Royal Rainbow Burst.Ultra Cure HappyTransformation:Ultra Cure Happy TransformationUltra Cure Happy is the ultimate form of Cure Happy. It was achieved in the Smile Pretty Cure movie, when the power of the miracle lights was used so that the people of the Land of Picture Books can wish for the Pretty Cure to defeat the Demon King. A miracle then occurred as the defeated and unconscious Cure Happy was able to wake up and her wounds healed. She then used the power given to her by the miracle lights to transform into Ultra Cure Happy. Her attire becomes more frilly and she gains a cape larger than her own body, as well as angelic wings and long flowy pigtails that are longer than her own body.Princess Happy being awakened by the power of the miracle lightsPrincess Happy transforms into Ultra Cure HappyAs Ultra Cure Happy, Miyuki becomes calm and mature, being capable of dissolving a giant dark energy ball with a single small beam of light. The beam of light then cleared the sky of the dark clouds allowing the sun to shine through, and finally, when she stepped onto the ground, the entire land went from being barren to becoming a field of pretty flowers.Ultra Cure Happy destroying a dark energy ball with a small beam of lightTrivia-In episode 13, Miyuki reveals she has a crush on Peter Pan.-Out of all of the Cures in Smile Pretty Cure, only Miyuki has an Ultra form, but she only achieved it once.-8 episodes of the Japanese version of Smile Pretty Cure never made it onto the American version, Glitter Force, because they had aspects of Japanese culture that would clash with the series, as Glitter Force takes place in America and not Japan. In the end, the American production decided to never air these episodes because there was no way to "Americanize" these episodes.-In Smile Pretty Cure, the first episode starts with Miyuki being late to school. Miyuki runs into Candy by pure coincidence. But in Glitter Force, she dreams of becoming a Pretty Cure with other strange girls, which causes her to be late to school.-Miyuki's last name, Hoshizora, means "starry sky" in English. Image not available forColour: Where do I start? Netflix, you've ruined me. You find this in the anime section, but this... IS ANYTHING but anime. It's not even japanese.Heavy on stereotypes, stupid characters. But the plot could be great. Right now, it's awful. A girl with -gasp- pink hair, whos a happy-go-lucky girl who tries her best and is innocent, and the stereotypical awful teen girl goes to a school where, conveniently, the people she is destined to work with, go to school there also. The shy fat girl, the energetic fighter, the popular girl, and the athlete. It's awful. And... the sidekick. A white pixie named Candy. She is the living embodiment of elmo's daughter. The villains? A witch named'Brooha', who can summon objects with red noses. It's truly cliché, even for kids anime.It gives parents a filtered vision of anime, not preparing them for when their kids start watching things like bleach, Watashi GA Motete Dousunda, and others. The body images aren't great. Giant, "naturally" blue, green, yellow, and pink sparkle hair, with INCREDIBLY short skirts, probably not even appropriate. They are all, "oh, I'm Japanese!" When. Netflix. An. English. Company. Made.This. Don't waste your time. The main character has an IQ of 10 at best, the sidekick gets pushed around and has a hidden talent for art, there's a popular brat, and then a narcissist brat, and then an athlete. Just don't waste time. Report this review
