A praying life discussion guide pdf

AuthorPaul E. MillerPublisherNavpressDate2009Pages277 Overview:Prayer is fundamental to the daily Christian walk. As a result, there is a multitude of resources that discuss the subject from centuries in the past to the present. A Praying Life adds to our understanding of prayer in a practical, contemporary way. Many Christians struggle with the daily discipline of prayer, and there are several reasons as to why. Some believe that God doesn't hear, and some believe that God doesn't care. Some believe that God is not present at all in their lives.Other Christians know they need to pray but don't have the discipline; some don't want to "bother" God with their problems; and others are just too discouraged by thoughts of unanswered prayers in the past. These issues are investigated and discussed throughout the book. Readers will learn that being dependent upon God and asking Him to act are actions that please Him. We serve a God who delights to be depended upon. Prayer is so hard that unless circumstances demand it—an illness, or saying grace at a meal—most of us simply do not pray. We prize accomplishments and productivity over time in prayer. Even Christians experience this prayerlessness—a kind of practical unbelief that leaves us marked by fear, anxiety, joylessness, and spiritual lethargy.Prayer is all about relationship. Based on the popular seminar by the same name, A Praying Life has disciplined thousands of Christians to a vibrant prayer life full of joy and power. When Jesus describes the intimacy He seeks with us, He talks about joining us for dinner (Revelation 3:20). A Praying Life feels like having dinner with good friends. It is the way we experience and connect to God. In A Praying Life, author Paul Miller lays out a pattern for living in relationship with God and includes helpful habits and approaches to prayer that enable us to return to a childlike faith.This new edition includes an expanded chapter on using the practical "prayer cards"—a hallmark of the teaching found in A Praying Life—and a chapter on the need and use of prayers of lament.
