PHOTOS IN THE STUDIOS The dollar dance (also known as money dance) is an interactive part of the wedding reception when guests pay to dance with the bride and groom, giving them money to start their new life together. Some couples prefer to have their friends and family pin bills for the bride's dress or simply slip them a dollar or two, but having a traditional dollar dance is a way to make it a little more fun. There are two ways to approach choosing the perfect song for your dollar dance. If you want to go with something brazen, try "Material Girl" by Madonna or "Gold Digger" by Kanye West. If you want to keep things sentimental, opt for the songs of James Taylor, The Beatles or Billy Joel. First of all, we rounded up the 65 best dance songs in dollars to play at your wedding. 01 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "Do you need someone? /I just need someone to love" 02 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "I know I will be a mess / The second I see you" 03 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "Because the boy with the cold hard cash / is always Mister Right" 04 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "I have never thought through love / we would do as a Lyric as "There is nothing for me, but to love you and the way you look tonight" 06 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "Yes, I think of myself/What a wonderful world" 07 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "And I said that I need a dollar, a dollar is what I need/And if I share with you my story would share your dollar with me" 08 of 65 LiriciLove: "My desire, for you, is that this life becomes everything you want to stay great, your worries remain small" 09 of 65 Lyrics of Love: "What you should call / stand there all" 10 of 65 Lyrics of Love: "This doesn't work like this is the way you do it/money for nothin players and your free chicks" 11 of 65 Lyric Throw your Rollies into the sky/let them side by side and hold your hands up" 13 of 65 Lirici d'Amore: "Yo!
